

Jobs galore for students, says Revenue Minister

Express News Service
Bhubaneswar, February 21

Convergence - 10, the annual fest of IBCS, MBA college of Siksha 'O' Anusandhan University was held here recently.

Addressing the function, Minister for Revenue and Disaster Management Surya Narayan Patro said that employment is not a problem any more since opportunities galore for the students to get a job which was not possible in the past. He advised students to utilise every minute of their lives.

Among others, Bhubaneswar MP Prasanna Pat-sani, MLA Ashok Panda, country head of IBM BS Ganesh, VC of SOA University Prof MP Jain, and IBCS Dean Prof S.Das were present.

Prizes were given away to winners of competitions. The meeting was followed by a celebrity nite by Rehan Khan and Ambili Menon from Bollywood.